ACTION REQUESTED

See Paragraph 3.

1. Forwarded under separate cover are photocopies of a postcard from Rudolf ROSENBERG, a Senior Swiss police official, to CARAVEL, which is also signed by Kaethy BERNHARD, pob dob not available, residing Gasthof zum Loewen, Worb near Bern, tel. (031) 7 23 03.

2. Following is quoted from EGFA 22219, 19 June 1958:

"6. BI Data. In discussion of old times in which [ ] and CARAVEL frequently engaged, CARAVEL mentioned that he had just received a postcard from his old friend Rudolf ROSENBERG, a Senior Swiss police official, who was the Swiss counter-intelligence officer who first interrogated CARAVEL when he arrived in 1944 in Switzerland after escaping from France. Feigning an interest in the postage stamp for his son, [ ] persuaded CARAVEL to give him the postcard. [ ] was amused to note that the postcard is a photograph of the Gasthof zum Loewen in Worb (Bern). This inn was the safehouse in which CARAVEL operated during the Swiss period of his activity for our predecessor organization. It is run by the family BERNHARD, and this postcard is also signed by Kaethy BERNHARD, who runs the establishment now, [ ] recalls having heard from [ ]

[ ] in past conversations that there was at one time an intimate association between CARAVEL and Kaethy BERNHARD. Another interesting point about the card is that it is addressed to Ober. Reg. Rat and Kriminaldirektor, indicating that ROSENBERG is a little behind times on CARAVEL's rank. The case officer will attempt to clear up this point. A photograph of the card will be processed separately to CARAVEL's 201 folder." attached hereto

3. Any information available in [ ] or Headquarters on ROSENBERG and Kaethy BERNHARD would be appreciated, since the case officer can make good use of such background information in his dealings with CARAVEL.
